

Safety

Asco Filtri SAP developed Health and Safety certificated system .

The main system's aspects includes: respect of Safety, Hygiene on the workplace and the rules of fire prevention.

The commitment to continuous improvement is oriented to the personal that operate daily within the Organization and to respect the community in which the Company operates. The Health and Safety System management, encourages the involvement and participation of all staff, both inside and outside the company, and is constantly updated to ensure their functionality.